

Basic Driver Functions

Driver Entry Routine

Called when driver is loaded into memory

- Initializes DeviceObject Structure
- Tells system about what functions the driver performs.

Open

Called when a program creates a handle to the driver

Close

Called when a program deletes its handle

Unload

Called when driver is removed from memory de-allocates all structures, removes DriverObject